My Pocket Financial Mentor

This podcast started in 2014 when my husband and I embarked on law school, family and 1 income. It has been the guidance from this podcast that helped us weather all of it plus 7 months unemployment and me going back to college. I'm so grateful for this podcast I wouldn't be as well off as I am today without her. I feel like a financially empowered woman ready to take on everything. Farnoosh is the mentor I needed at just the right time, she's really there for her audience.
